WELCOME MESSAGE

Dear colleagues,

Developments in medicine, particularly in diagnosis and therapy, require medical practitioners to continuously improve their knowledge, therefore they should always follow the scientific activities. The knowledge is then expected to be applied in community in accordance with the scientific progress in pulmonology and respiration. Malang Annual Pulmonary Scientific Meeting 2017 comes with a series of scientific activities that will discuss the latest diagnosis and management in medicine particularly in pulmonology and respiration. Respiratory cases require optimal management based on the new paradigm that will enhance our efforts in improving our service quality to the community. As the organizing committee of The Indonesia Society of Respiriology from Malang branch, we proudly invite you to join the Malang Annual Pulmonary Scientific Meeting 2017. The meeting will be held on July, 29th – 30th 2017 to discuss "Empowering Management of Pulmonary and Respiratory Disease". We look forward to meet you in Malang Annual Pulmonary Scientific Meeting 2017.

Best regards,

dr. Suryanti Dwi Pratiwi, Sp.P(K), FISR
